TREVECCA NAZARENE COLLEGE

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

The Nineteen Hundred Sixty-One Danda

Bess Kirby • Editor

Joe Moses • Business Manager

From these roots of Trevecca Nazarene College go forth lives that are exemplary of wisdom, lives that are examples of true worship, lives that are triumphant because they have found their place in the world, and lives that fit because they know the real meaning of togetherness. Everywhere Trevecca students can be found as their lives blossom in the tumult of the seasons . . .

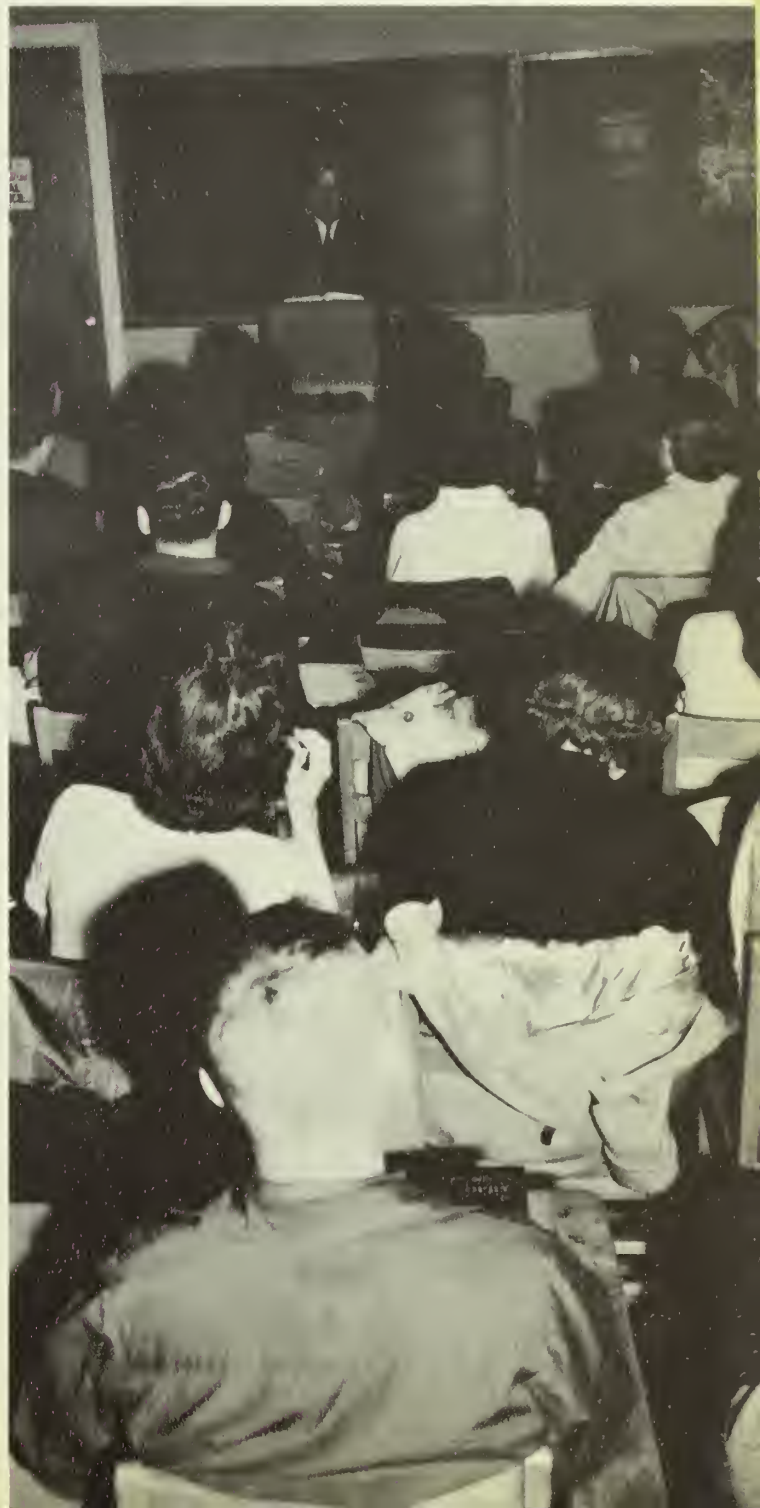

From These Roots . . .

The Root of Wisdom . . .

"Gold, or the value of what is equivalent to gold, lies at the root of wisdom." With the devoted lives of our faculty members used in personnel services, counseling, and classroom teaching, out of this root are developing useful lives to be of service in all phases of life. Wisdom is an important characteristic to keep in mind when molding a young life.

The Root of Worship . . .

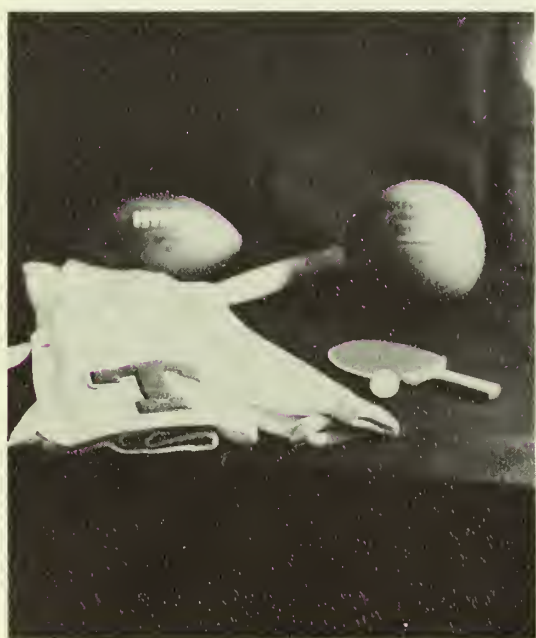

"Worship is transcendent wonder." From the root of worship bud blossoms of prayer, song, and care for others. One major organization which exemplifies this root is our Christian Workers Association.

From this root characteristics of Christian Character can be developed to help make a well-rounded young person.

The Root of Triumph . . .

"The reward of a thing well done is to have done it." Triumph is honor received for work well done by one's own choice. Sports, clubs, and extra-curricular activities all play an important part in the ripening process of a bud into a beautiful flower which is characteristic of a well-prepared youth.

"Together we stand; divided we fall." With the spirit of cooperation which is so prevalent at Trevecca, the students portray lives of helpfulness to be used as pastors, missionaries, teachers, nurses, doctors, and social workers.

The Root of Togetherness

DR. A. B. MACKEY, President of the College

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The wisest thing in the world is the search for wisdom. It has been said that wisdom is the right use of knowledge; it might well be said that wisdom is the right use of any good thing whether it be knowledge, skill, wealth, talent or time. Solomon was called a wise man because he did not ask God for wealth nor for the destruction of his enemies but for wisdom to rule his people. Because he did not ask for those minor things, the Lord gave them to him.

The twin sister to wisdom is worship, and true worship is the worship of the true and living God. Worship is the recognizing of a true evaluation. Worship should be a changing something—it should develop as we become wise enough to recognize more and more the true worth of godliness and righteousness. Trevecca Nazarene College should seek to develop a greater and greater appreciation for the value of true worship; not necessarily the special times of worship, but a worshipful prayer that never ceases.

This annual should be a representation of the togetherness which characterizes the highest type of education. Education is not an individualistic affair; it must be a group enterprise. The Bible teaches that two working together can put to flight ten times as many as one working alone. The cooperative program in school should be the beginning of a cooperative program which should extend throughout our lives and to the ends of the earth.

Wisdom, worship and togetherness will bring daily triumph to the participants and a final triumphant entry into an eternity of peace and happiness.

A. B. MACKEY, President

THE MACKEY STORY

Wisdom garnered from more than forty years of teaching and administration and from the workings of an agile mind has been a treasure that President A. B. Mackey has shared in countless ways with the students who have come within the portals of Trevecca. The seeds of success were planted when as elementary teacher, high school teacher, principal, college instructor, dean, and college vice-president he formed an acquaintance with the many aspects of education. Added to this were college and graduate work in economics, educational psychology, and educational administration beyond that usually required for a doctor's degree. This experience gave valuable training for the immeasurable service he has rendered to the cause of Christian education.

Worship of God, he has taught us, by both precept and example, must include a life of maximum service. The sense of mission and devotion to a cause so desperately needed in the troubled world has certainly been exemplified by this good man. Education for some purpose has been his goal. "Holiness educational evangelism" is his phrase to picture what Trevecca is emphasizing in order to enlarge the bounds of the Kingdom and cope with the problems of our civilization.

Triumph has been his, but only after years of sacrifice to perpetuate a college being tried in the crucible of adversity. The day has come when, under his guidance, Trevecca Nazarene College has achieved an enviable standing in the educational world with a campus valued at one and a half million dollars. These resources, together with the staff he has selected, send forth Nazarene youth in ever-increasing numbers to lead satisfying and useful lives.

President and Mrs. A. B. Mackey and their nephew, Gene Dalton

Togetherness implies a close relationship between president and students possible only in a college the size of Trevecca. The weekly chapel messages, the willing counsel, and the frequent associations make possible a sharing of the thought and spirit of our president which has value beyond calculation. To you, Dr. Mackey, we of the Trevecca family wish to express our deep appreciation for your rich contribution to our college and pledge ourselves to be indeed "sons and daughters she'll be proud of." Your influence has strengthened such an aspiration.

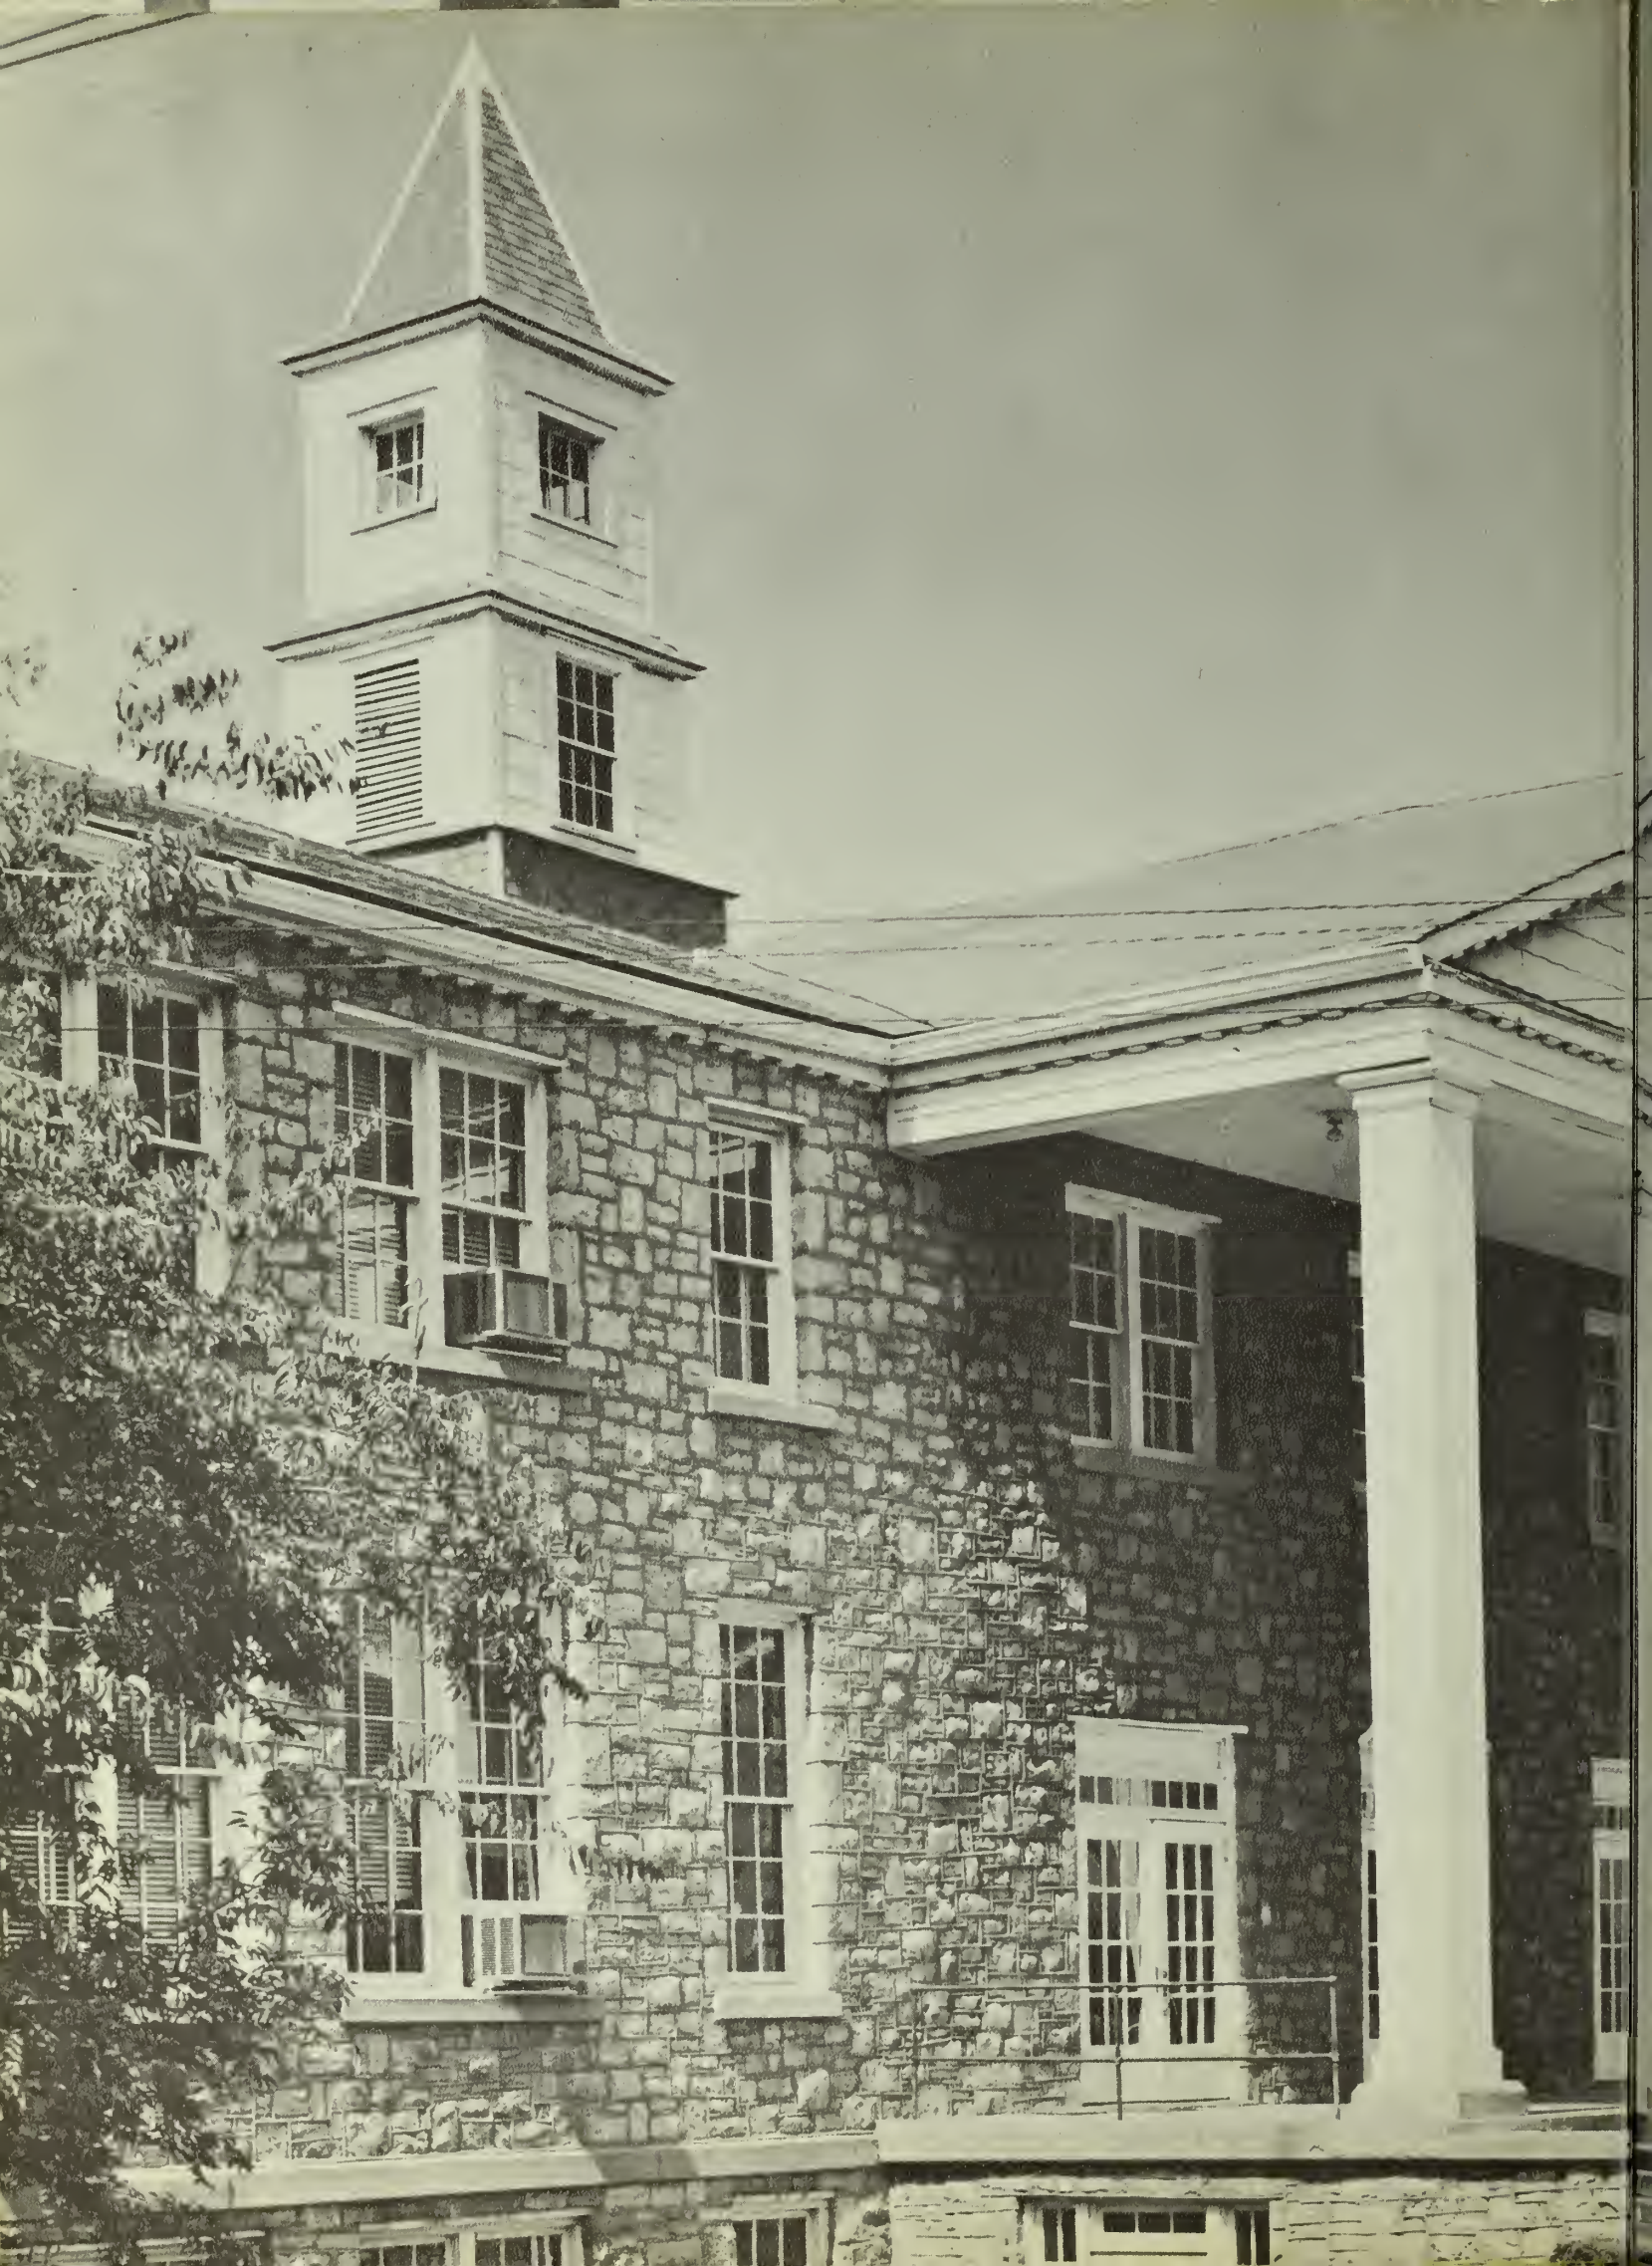

DEDICATION

WE DEDICATE THE 1961 DARDA

- To one whose life exemplifies the standards of the college.
- To one who is understanding, and has the ability to make every student feel welcome.
- To one who, in all the seriousness of her job, never loses her sense of humor.
- To one who is a graduate of the college, and who left an enviable record behind her.
- To one whose Christian living will always be an inspiration to all who know her.
- To you,

MISS EULA JEAN STEPHAN

THE MACKEY LIBRARY

Standing in honor of one who has devoted his life to Trevecca is our new library, which is to be dedicated in June, 1961. This, the newest of our buildings, is named in honor of President A. B. Mackey who has set goal after goal for our college and then worked hard to reach each goal he had set.

The Mackey Library will consist of three floors. The ground floor, for the present, will house temporary faculty offices, a large classroom, additional stacks space, and an informal room with kitchenette for faculty and faculty groups. The main floor provides space for a large reading room which will seat one hundred and eleven. There will be eleven individual study tables. Beyond this room will be found the stacks area in which are eight study carrels. The circulation desk, with reserved book section adjoining, will be accessible from the lobby. Opposite the stacks at the south end of the building will be the staff room, offices for the librarians, work area and storage space. The second floor has the periodical reading room with seating space for seventy-eight. There are also rooms for music listening equipment, historical material on Trevecca and the Southeastern Zone, and conferences. Additional stacks area will occupy a large portion of this floor.

The entire floor area will have more than twenty-two thousand square feet of space.

SUMMER SCHOOL

The summer months offer a wonderful time to study at T.N.C. The study is done in less time and in better conditions. Only a few of the organizations are active during the summer months, thus making the pressure less on the students. In addition to this, the campus is an array of summer beauty. Students who attend Summer School agree that one learns more in the sunny summer time.

Test time for the freshmen

Lunch time for the freshmen

Freshman Orientation

Freshman Orientation activities, under the direction of Professor K. W. Phillips, began officially on Thursday, September 15, 1960.

After a brief devotional service, the freshmen reported to the library and cafeteria for the College Qualification Test and the ACE English Placement and Exemption Test. A Campus Life Conference was conducted that evening in the Fine Arts auditorium, with dormitory house meetings after Professor Leon Chambers, dean of students, addressed the freshmen.

On Friday, September 16, after the usual devotional service, the freshmen took the Iowa Silent Reading Test and Kuder Preference Record under the direction of Dr. Lewis Pennington, and the Bible Survey Test under the direction of Dr. Homer J. Adams. Interviews were conducted in the library for educational counseling and guidance on trial schedules. Choir and chorus auditions were held in the Fine Arts building by Professor Ramon Unruh and Miss Barbara McClain. On that evening a faculty reception for the freshmen was given.

Educational counseling and choir and chorus auditions took place on Saturday. The faculty gave the students a picnic supper on Hardy Green. An open-air service, with James Staley, president of the C.W.A., in charge, was held Saturday night. Dr. W. M. Greathouse, dean of religion, brought a message of inspiration.

Sunday, September 18, was a busy day for Christian workers with the new freshmen taking active part in Christian work.

Monday, September 19, was registration day for one hundred and sixty-nine new freshmen.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT COUNCIL

The notable success of the Student Council this year may be credited to the fine performance of the president, Henry Staggs, and secretary, Beverly Donegan. Of course, this success would never have been achieved without the co-operation of each class representative.

Professor Jerry Costa has served as the council's sponsor in suggesting and guiding its plans throughout the school year.

The highlight of the social events sponsored by the council was the Christmas party which proved to be a great success.

CHAPEL MEMORIES

A spirit of freedom in worship is the tonic note in chapel services as songs of praise are sung and spontaneous testimonies are given.

The daily presentation of the gospel message in both song and message is a privilege we enjoy. Great men of our day and outstanding leaders of our church instruct us in the spiritual realm so that out of our lives will bud useful service to Christ.

CHRISTIAN WORKERS ASSOCIATION

From this branch of the Root of Worship will bud many fruitful lives because of Christian workers who were faithful.

The purpose of the Association is to give the message of salvation to the needy in such places as the jails, old-age rest homes, juvenile court, and on the street corners. This offers effective training for Christian service by actual work where it is needed most. In this type service the Christian Workers reap both immediate and long-range blessings for themselves.

The Association carries out the command of Christ—"Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel . . ."

The aim is not to lose sight of the need to reap the fields already "white unto harvest."

EVANGELISM CONFERENCE

On November 16-17 Trevecca Nazarene College, with the cooperation of the Department of Evangelism and the twelve districts of the Southeastern Zone, presented the quadrennial program, "Evangelism First." The speakers were Dr. V. H. Lewis, Dr. Edward Lawlor, and the twelve district superintendents of the Southeast.

In this conference there was a spiritual mandate. Our speakers reminded us that this is our hour and that we must win souls now. These words were not the pleas of those inaugurating a program. They were the cry of burdened souls for lost men and women.

The college Senior Class gave a reception for all the district superintendents and their wives, the faculty members and their wives and husbands, and the guests of honor, Dr. Lewis and Dr. Lawlor.

THE A CAPPELLA CHOIR...

PROFESSOR RAMON UNRUH
 Director of the A Cappella Choir

Forty voices lift songs of praise and adoration as this group expresses its aim in song. Long hours of practice and time spent in travel are counter-balanced by the social events and the spaghetti supper they enjoy.

Besides other public appearances, the choir made a tour of the northern section of the Southeastern Educational Zone.

The purpose of this singing group is to exemplify Christ by the songs they sing and the lives they live.

The members of the A Cappella Choir as they prepare to leave for General Assembly.

The A Cappella choir traveled to Kansas City last summer for the 1960 General Assembly. There they made many public appearances singing at the Assembly services, at the Missionary Convention, and on a television program.

One of the highlights for the group was the Trevecca Banquet where they met with the present-day students and alumni.

This trip was one that will long be remembered because of the spiritual help received as well as the contribution made.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student government for our school is the Student Council. It has a vital part in directing campus affairs, both as a study governing body and as an advisory council to the faculty.

The activities at the beginning of the school term in September are supervised by the student council members. They have an active committee that enforces the traffic laws and registers all campus cars.

They sponsor all student elections, including those for the major officers who are elected in the spring. This is usually a "lively campaign."

The Student Council also emphasizes the spiritual aspect when they choose a layman for the annual Student Council Lectures.

They have charge of all class and club activities. They, along with the faculty council committee, choose a "Class and Club of the Year." They also select individual awards. These are determined by points of merit. This is a very responsible job and the Council takes its work seriously.

The Council is sponsored by Dr. Homer J. Adams, who advises them concerning plans and duties.

THE 1961 DARDA

DARDA is the name given of the yearbook of Trevecca Nazarene College. Usually when we think of a yearbook, we think of the past school year's activities. To be even more specific, we wonder what main theme could represent the year's activity. Usually the editor and, at times, the staff members decide what they think is a logical theme for the year's work. This year the theme of Roots grew out of the fact that trees grow from roots. And so we know that out of environments of wisdom, worship, triumph, and togetherness grow stable Christian men and women of tomorrow. We, the staff members of this year's DARDA, hope that through these pages you may ever remember that what we are tomorrow is a result of our environment today.

Mary Jane Still has done exceptionally well on the Trev-Echoes this year. Working with her are the able staff and reporters who are members of the journalism class, having "A NOSE for NEWS." Dwayne Little has done an excellent job on the business side of the staff.

The purpose of the paper is to have in writing echoes from our college campus. Much hard work goes on behind scenes such as: gathering news, assigning articles, proofreading, taking ads, and drawing up the dummy.

Congratulations to the editor, the business manager, and the staff.

For the third consecutive year Wendell Poole has served as prexy of this organization. With the advice of the co-sponsors, Dr. Homer J. Adams and Miss Barbara McClain, and the help of Mary Helen Lane, secretary, Roger Costa, treasurer, Bud York and Carol Light, reporters, the T.A.A. prexy has made smooth progress this year.

The year began with a new boom in enthusiasm and each society's making claim on football, basketball, and softball championships. It is exciting to watch the societies battle for the trophy each season.

Along with these sports the T.A.A. has volleyball, shuffleboard, and tennis games for students athletically inclined in those areas.

The T.A.A. is a well-organized society with sports of interest going on throughout the entire year.

ATHLETIC SOCIETIES

ALPHA SOCIETY

The Alphas elected Bob Cook as their society chairman. They looked forward to maintaining their championship title in football but were eased out of that position by the Beta Society. Their fine performance made this claim a struggle for the Betas.

BETA SOCIETY

Beta is derived from the second word in the Greek alphabet, but this does not mean that they are in second place in society ranking. Proof of this is the fact that they won the 1960-61 football championship. To show that they were really enthusiastic this year, the cheerleaders sponsored a banquet in honor of the Beta football team.

Jimmy Stocks headed the Beta Society this year and was very capable in his position.

DELTA SOCIETY

In the past years the Delta Society has been at the top of the list, but this year they have had a bit of trouble holding their rank. The loss of a few leading players did not help them in the least.

But in basketball they are moving to the top. Leading the team to the top again is Byron Dollar, captain of the team, and Charlie Kirby, chairman of the society.

BOB COOK
Captain of the team

ALPHA FOOTBALL

With four cheerleaders, much excitement, and an experienced team the Alphas began the football season to maintain their last year's championship. Bob Cook, captain, led the team through the season in the close race with the Beta team.

BETA FOOTBALL

This year for the first time since the athletic societies have been formed at Trevecca, the BETAS have won the football championships. The deciding game was a 12-8 victory over the Alphas, last year's champions, under the leadership of Jim Stocks as captain and Roger Costa as chairman. The team was cheered on by the six cheerleaders, and the football victory was theirs.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

ALPHA GIRLS

The Alpha Girls played excellently last year and almost took the trophy. This year under Carol Light, captain, they plan not to be second but the champs. The Alphas seem to be trying too hard for Mickey McMeans, who injured her ankle, and Karen Cox, who broke her toe.

BETA GIRLS

The Betas, having an overflow of girls this season, have the desire to take the championship this year.

Mary Jane Still, captain, and an outstanding player, has a very good team to help her.

DELTA GIRLS

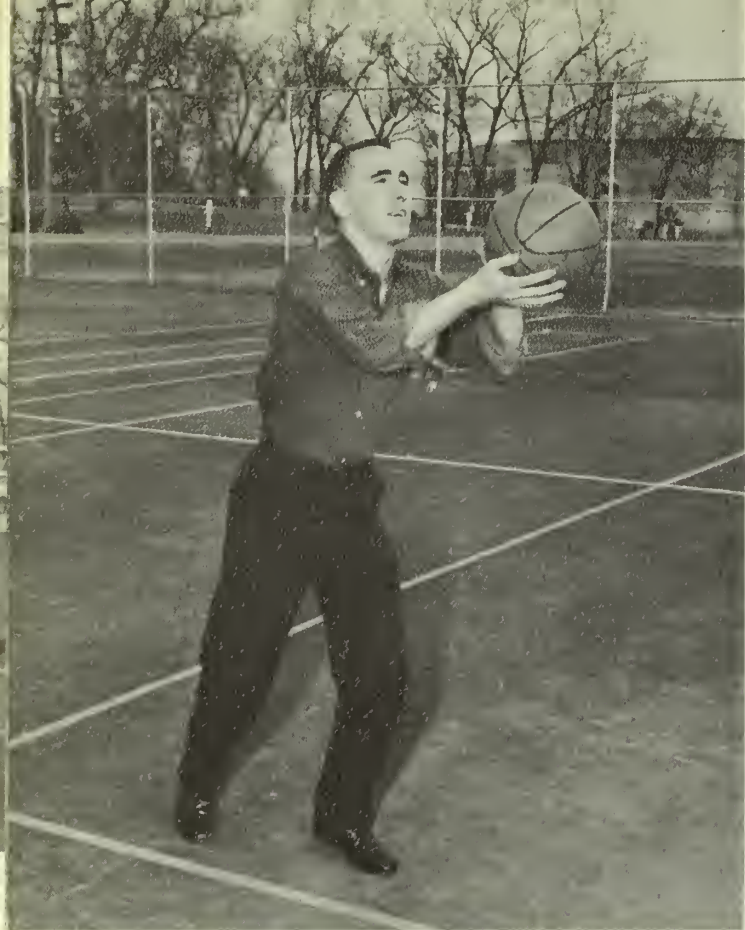

Last year the Deltas won the tournament games and will perhaps win again this year. They were short of players at first and had to recruit some new ones. A good team is now founded with outstanding players Chiquita Russell and Polly Kea under leadership of Esther Blume, captain.

BOY'S

The Alpha basketball team for the past three seasons has been the reigning champion, but this year they received a blow when their captain and leading scorer, Ed Sisson, did not register for the winter quarter. Back from last year's team are: Wendell Poole, who succeeded Sisson as captain, Dave Brown, Bob Cook, and Laverne Deal.

With these experienced players back from last season the Alphas could still come out on top.

BASKETBALL

The Betas this year have a strong team with Roger Costa and Morton Estep leading the way. They have not been a threat to anyone for the past few seasons, but this year we find a very aggressive and hard-playing team that works well together. With a few breaks, this could be their year.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

DELTA

The Deltas this year have their hopes built around their captain, Byron Dollar, and Charles Kirby. They have an exceptionally tall team and shoot very well from the outside. This, plus their speed, could very well earn for them the title, champions.

SOFTBALL

According to the poets and novelists, every spring "a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of love." On the campus of Trevecca Nazarene College the young men are not exceptions to the rule, but sharing the limelight with their romantic interests is the national pastime, the grand old game of softball.

The softball season at Trevecca opened with plenty of action on the softball diamond. The three societies, Alpha, Beta, and Delta are all pushing for the championship. The Deltas will be trying to defend their last year's championship.

TREVECCA ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Trevecca College has a wonderful group of alumni. This is especially evidenced at reunion time—no matter where or when they meet. Everyone is young when with former classmates.

Nobody knows for certain what makes Trevecca reunions so much fun. Whatever it is, it seems to work some kind of magic. A greeting jars memories loose, and a handshake can whisk you back to another decade.

It is this spirit that brings alumni back to the banquet each year, that makes them want to be here. They come back to laugh and talk and remember when. They come back to see how far they have gone away, to see how much they have changed. They come back to see their youth, because a part of it is always here.

THE LAST WORD . . .

The 1961 DARDA has finally become a reality! Many long hours of hard work have gone into the making of this book. We would like to take this opportunity to thank the many people that have helped to make this creation possible. We extend our sincere thanks to Associate Editor Sylvia Young and Assistant Business Manager Melvin Welch for their splendid work on the 1961 DARDA. To our staff members, our advisors, our photographers, our printers, and our cover company, we say thank you. The 1961 DARDA is completed—we hope that you have enjoyed it as much as we enjoyed making it possible for you.

Bethel acknowledges her debt to Trevecca:

Bethel was organized from a mission about 1936, the mission being the result and product of prayer meetings held in this vicinity by Trevecca students.

Bethel opens her doors to Trevecca:

To the administration in its church-related work, and to the students for worship and service while in Nashville.

Bethel pledges her support to Trevecca:

Acknowledging our indebtedness, we gladly remember Trevecca in our prayers and support her financially through regular budgets and special, free-will offerings.
